Qwest Mail
by Windows Live

Re: 9th Annual Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival at CC
From: Courtney Shephard (courtney.shephard@coloradocollege.edu)
Sent: Sat 10/11/08 10:22 AM
To: Robert Armintor ([redacted])

Thank you for these numbers, Bob. We were happy to host you!

-Courtney

On Fri, Oct 10, 2008 at 6:15 PM, Robert Armintor <[redacted]> wrote:

> Dear Courtney:
>
> Ryan forwarded your request to me, so here are our stats for the weekend of Sept. 19-20-21.
>
> The stats are educated guesses as in addition to individual film tickets (which we count), we have full Festival, half Festival passes, and 4-Film passes which are checked at the door, but not collected.
>
> 1) Opening Night Reception and film in Armstrong Hall (we did not use the balcony) = 525
> 2) Saturday afternoon (we only used the screening room in Cornerstone)12:25 pm film= 67
> (screening room) 3:45 pm film= 105
> Armstrong Hall Theatre 6:15 pm film= 75
> Armstrong Hall Theatre 8:30 pm film= 80
>
> 3) Sunday afternoon (we only used the screening room in Cornerstone) noon film= 100
> (screening room) 2:30 pm film= 105
> Armstrong Hall Theatre 5:00 pm film= 125
> Armstrong Hall Theatre 7:45 pm film= 50
> Grand total: 1232
>
> We'd like to thank Colorado College for the use of both the Cornerstone Arts Center and Armstrong Hall > for the Festival this year. If you have additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
>
> Bob Armintor (471-0836) barmintor_8@msn.com

--
Courtney Shephard
The Colorado College, International Political Economy Major courtney.shephard@coloradocollege.edu
redacted